NOTE FOR

STATINTL

With reference to proposed CFI Memorandum #2, I believe it was correct without the inked insertion of the words "to be." Suggest those words be deleted. Also, would it not be well to broaden the scope of the memorandum to specifically include the other committees which according to the White House press release are abolished, even though the Executive Order did not so provide? One difficulty however is that the successor to the 40 Committee apparently is the Operations Advisory Group, and CFI may regard it as inappropriate for that Committee to advise with respect to the continuing existence or non-existence of the 40 Committee.
